Advisory Items

Business & Employment Resource Center (BERC) – December 2025 Monthly Report

Stephanie Macias, Economic Development Senior Management Analyst, presented a comprehensive update on workshops, statistics on residents and veterans served via phone or one-on-one meetings, job fairs, and educational opportunities offered through the BERC, as well as updates on current partnerships and upcoming events.

The highlights included a range of signature workshops and partner events, as well as hiring information events hosted by Solaris Paper, and IHSS where 100 available jobs were available. Additionally, career coaching and partner sessions were held, serving 15 customers through Riverside Legal Aid, 80 customers through the Employment Development Department, and 157 customers who received career coaching. Staff continues their focus on marketing through social media. Metrics for the job seeker list and event attendees were shared, along with a calendar of upcoming events.

Economic Development Subcommittee – Receive and file.

Economic Development Summary – February 2026

Melissa McClain, Economic Development Manager, provided a detailed update on recent growth in the commercial and industrial sectors, as well as on developments in office space, both completed and currently in progress, as of February 2026. Highlights included the Rancho Health Moreno Valley Clinic and Quick Quack Car Wash opening within the next few weeks at The District; updates on the Moreno Valley Satellite Library at Lakeshore Village Marketplace; PRW Power Inc. opening on Old 215 Frontage Road; and the opening of Sky Zone at Moreno Valley Mall.
